Mares wins Round Robin; passes opportunity to Phipps

Phillips County's top showmen competed in the Round Robin on Saturday afternoon. Results from that contest are as follows:

Senior: Grand Champion and Scholarship Winner, Lucinda Mares; Reserve Grand Champion, Braden Plumb; third, Isaiah Rueter.

Intermediate: Grand Champion, Sawyer Phipps; Reserve Grand Champion, Jaelynn Miner; third, Mason Boerner.

The top scoring contestant from each county's round robin qualifies to compete in the Master Showmen contest at the State Fair in Pueblo. Last year Phillips County sent Lucinda Mares, who won Colorado's 2023 Master Showman.

Mares was Phillips County's 2024 top scorer, qualifying her for the Master Showman contest in Pueblo for a second time. However, Mares elected to pass the opportunity onto the second highest scoring showman to give another Phillips County 4-H member the opportunity to compete at the next level. Sawyer Phipps will represent Phillips County and the Paoli Hustlers in Pueblo during the State Fair later in August.

BROCK MILLER, Grand Champion Leadership.

We would like to thank our generous Phillips County Fair Jr. Livestock Sale buyers:

- Points West Community Bank, Market Goat
- Hagemann Ranch
- Mark & Mella Dee Hagemann, Market Hog
- 4 Mile Ag, Dan & Steffany Firme, Market Goat
- Chamberlain Concrete, Market Hog

Thank you to the Phillips County Fair Board, Livestock Committee, Extension personnel and numerous others who work to make the Phillips County Fair a success! We appreciate all you do to support 4-H and FFA!

*Sincerely,
 Braden and Allison Plumb*
